

Dear Parents,

September 5, 2008

Another week has flown by. The kids seem to really be settling into the routines of the classroom. I was finally able to get all the grading done, and will be sending home your child's finished work in a folder, that needs to be returned on Monday, so I can use it again. Please look over the work with your children, and see how they are doing and what they are learning. You may keep the work, but return the folder. Thank you.

Also I have only received one "reading log" paper. I hope everyone is reading at home, and keeping record of that. It is not only beneficial to them as learners, but they also receive "tickets" in class for at home reading. Please remind your child to keep reading!!!

The kids had another music practice on Wednesday, and are all ready to perform this Sabbath (August 6, '08). I can't wait to hear them sing ☺ Please have your child be at the Simi Valley SDA church by 10am tomorrow.
